Before Lolcats, there was The Sick Kitten, a short film made in 1901 – six years after the birth of cinema, and 112 years before today's cat-dominated internet scene. The premise is simple: two children play doctors with a kitten who is suffering from an unknown 'illness'. It licks away at the 'medicine', which we suspect is really milk.

Winter Cycling . As a web site that advocates cycling as a normal means of transportation, we would be remiss if we ignored the fact that in the major part of North America there is this little inconvenience called WINTER.. The vast majority of cyclists hang up their steeds as soon as it turns cold enough that shorts are uncomfortably cool.
