Wolves and dogs are interfertile, meaning they can breed and produce viable offspring. Some argue that, using a classical interpretation of the word species, this means that wolves and dogs are in fact the same species.. Wolves and dogs are indeed closely related — dogs descended from wolves, after all — and they display a great number of physiological and behavioral similarities.

by Matt Allington I am well under way in my career as a Power Pivot Consultant and Trainer. And I have to say (now that I have delivered a number of Rob's "PowerPivot for Excel" training classes) that I am finding delivering training to be one of the most rewarding things I do. It occurred to me recently that people
