Humanitarian Intervention And The Responsibility

VII This report is about the so-called "right of humanitarian intervention": the question of when, if ever, it is appropriate for states to take coercive – and in particular military – action,

The Responsibility

The Responsibility to Protect (R2P or RtoP) is a global political commitment which was endorsed by all member states of the United Nations at the 2005 World Summit in order to address its four key concerns to prevent genocide, war crimes, ethnic cleansing and crimes against humanity.. The principle of the Responsibility to Protect is based upon the underlying premise that sovereignty entails a ...
